

Natural History Talks 2024

Monday evenings in the Herschel Building, Newcastle University.

Doors open and refreshments at 6pm.

18.29

19.00

15 January	Tracking Pollution in the Ouse Burn , with Rixia Zan, Newcastle University	From Soil to Song or Common-Sense Farming , with Charlie Bennet, Middleton North
22 January	My Experience Working in a Seal Rescue Centre , with Alex Duggan, Newcastle University	Moths in a Changing Environment , with Emily Hickinbotham, Newcastle University
29 January	Seed Mixes for Permanent Grasslands , with Sarah Platt, Newcastle University	Mass Marine Die-offs: Searching for the Cause of These Events in the North East , with Gary Caldwell, Newcastle University
5 February	Assessing Planting Strategies In Saltwell Park , with Megan Ferrell, Northumbria University	Peatland Restoration in the North Pennines , with Lisa Gill & Alistair Lockett, North Pennines National Landscape
12 February	Ouse Burn Way Vision , with Anne Reece, Reece Foundation	Urban Kittiwakes , with Helen Wilson, Durham University
19 February	Seals on the Farne Islands , with Alex Moore, Newcastle University	Riverflies: The Canary of our Rivers , Trine Bregstein, Riverfly Partnership
26 February	Noisy Neighbours: Offshore Wind Farms and Cetaceans in the North East , Sarah Dickinson, Newcastle University	The 'Mag'nificent World of Magnesian Limestone Grasslands , with Mark Dinning, Durham Wildlife Trust
4 March	Wildlife in the City: Gosforth's Wild Web and Wild Ouseburn , with NHSN and Wild Intrigue	The Rise of Bottlenose Dolphins in the North East , with Martin Kitching, North East Cetacean Project
11 March	An Evening with North East Ornithologist, Tom Cadwallender

1829 and NHSN Talks are open to all.

Bring along your friends, family, and colleagues too.