

Monthly A-Z: March

Celebrating local nature and wild places that you notice in and around Newcastle-upon-Tyne. Look out for these in March!

Gosforth's
Wild Web
Noticing Nature around Newcastle

Anemone 	Brimstone 	Colt's-Foot 	Dunnock 	Eranthis Hye-alis 	Frog spawn 	Grass snakes 	Hare
Ivy leaves 	Jackdaw 	Kestrel 	Lords & Ladies 	Mistle Thrush 	Narcissus 	Oystercatcher 	Pike
Quercus robur (oak tree buds) 	Ramsons 	Skylark 	Toothwort 	Upland heath 	Viola odorata 	Wheatear 	X- Fact! Xanthoria parietina can be seen all year

Yellowhammer

Zebra spiders

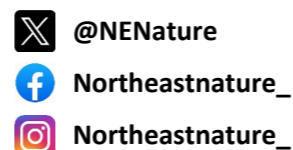

Thank you to the follow photographers for the use of their images: Edward Appleby, Mike Reid, Liz Richmond, Richard Potts, Brenda Astley, Chris Barlow, Maria Schusler, Florence Davis, and Edward Conway.

Send photos or notes of the wildlife and wild places you see by email to nhsn@ncl.ac.uk

Or tag us on social media #GosforthsWildWeb

Find out more